

Waiting Room Advertising Policy

Advertisements may be placed in the patient waiting room if:

1. The advertisement is for something directly related to the medical field, not for profit, and for information or benefit to all patients of the community and it is tastefully represented.

Advertisements may not be placed in the patient waiting room if:

1. The advertisement is for a “for profit” organization (like a store having a sale);
or
2. The advertisement is political or expresses a particular religious belief.

Permission is not needed from the Clinic Director with regard to what should or should not be posted.
